

Library Game Orientation

A Quick and Fun Introduction to Walker Library with LibGO!

Presented by Walker Library, User Services

Wednesday, September 26
10:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.
Walker Library, Room 264A

Students who want a quick, interactive library game orientation (LibGO) experience will participate in an online educational challenge which will take them on a tour of the building and its resources. Students will learn how the library can help with academic success. Snacks and prizes will be available. The first 100 participants to play LibGO receive a grab bag of prizes (must be present to win).

- ‘Choose Your Own Library Adventure’
- Pick your character, play LibGO
- Earn or lose points along the way
- Play on a computer in the library

The LibGO event hosted at the library is co-sponsored by MT Engage and Walker Library at Middle Tennessee State University
